SUPPLEMENT TO INFORMAL OBJECTION

Entravision Holdings, LLC ("Entravision"), permittee of Station WUVN-DT, Channel 46, Hartford, Connecticut ("WUVN" or the "Station"), by its attorneys, hereby supplements its objection to the DTV channel allotment exchange proposed by Connecticut Public Broadcasting, Inc. ("CPBI") in the above-referenced applications. In support thereof, Entravision states as follows.

Pursuant to the above-referenced applications, CPBI seeks to exchange the DTV channel allotments of two of its noncommercial educational stations, Station WEDN(TV), Norwich, Connecticut ("WEDN"), and Station WEDH(TV), Hartford, Connecticut ("WEDH"). On February 5, 2005, Entravision filed an Informal Objection to CPBI's applications, based on the impermissible interference that WEDH's proposed operation on DTV Channel 45 ("WEDH Application")¹ would cause to an additional 2.8 percent of the population within WUVN's service area. Entravision based its Informal Objection on the interference showing included in the Objection filed by American Broadcasting Companies, Inc. ("ABC") on January 15, 2004. On September 2, 2005, in response to CPBI's amendment to the WEDH Application and CPBI's DTV channel elections for WEDH and WEDN, ABC filed a Supplement to its Objection. Entravision now wishes to supplement its own Informal Objection to support ABC's pleading and to state Entravision's continuing objection to WEDH-DT's proposed Channel 45 operation.

On March 17, 2004, CPBI filed an amendment to the WEDH Application in which it claimed to have achieved "compliance with all domestic allocation considerations, including to WUVN-DT." WEDH Application, Application Purpose Exhibit at 1. However, as demonstrated in ABC's Supplement to Objection, WEDH-DT's proposed Channel 45 operation, as amended, will continue to cause interference to 2.7 percent of the population served by WUVN's Channel 46 facility.² See Supplement to Objection at 11 and Exhibit 4. Thus, despite CPBI's claims to the contrary, the WEDH Application still fails to comply with the Commission's 2 percent de minimis interference standard, as set forth in Section 73.623 of the Commission's Rules. See 47 C.F.R. § 73.623(c)(2). Because WEDH-DT's proposed operation on Channel 45 will cause additional interference to WUVN in excess of the Commission's 2 percent de minimis limit, the DTV channel allotment exchange proposed by CPBI must be denied.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, Entravision Holdings, LLC, permittee of Station WUVN-DT, Channel 46, Hartford, Connecticut, requests that the Commission deny the digital television channel allotment exchange proposed by Connecticut Public Broadcasting, Inc.

Respectfully submitted,
